Kuan Yin is the Bodhisattva of Compassion. In the Buddhist tradition a "bodhisattva" is one who delays her enlightenment in order to aid others on their paths. She is the most revered goddess in Asia. Kuan Yin is finding her way to our Western culture and into our hearts in a timely manner as embracing compassion can create self-love in our lives. She is the same loving energy as Tara in the Hindu tradition, Mother Mary in the Christian tradition, Shaktina in the Judaic tradition and Isis in the Egyptian tradition. Kuan Yin is said to answer all prayers and come to the assistance of those in need.
